

Celebration of His Holiness's 86th Birthday in Tibet Institute Rikon (Rikon Gonpa) (to be attended only by the invited dignitaries)

This is to announce that the official celebration of His Holiness the Dalai Lama's 86th Birthday will be held in Tibet Institute Rikon (Rikon Gonpa) on 06th July 2021. Considering the social distancing regulation and other recommendations in view of the ongoing Coronavirus crisis by the Swiss Federal Office of Health, the celebration will be led by Khen Rinpoche & monks of Rikon Gonpa, and will be attended only by the invited dignitaries. Please note that under the present social distancing regulation, a maximum of 36 persons are allowed in the Rikon Gonpa prayer hall and also in the garden the number of persons is very limited. Hence we request the general public for understanding and to keep in mind that the celebration this time is not a public event. The Tibetan Community will be represented by the TCSL President and Vice-President and Thumis during the ceremony.

With our best greetings,
Tibetan Community in Switzerland and Liechtenstein

PS: The regular grand celebration of His Holiness the Dalai Lama's birthday in Stadthalle Bülach will not take place this year in view of the ongoing Coronavirus crisis.
